

My Rights, My Decisions

You have rights. The service provider needs to listen to you and respect your choices.

Support me safely and well

They should do their job safely and well.

Respect my privacy

They should respect your personal space and not share information about you unless you say they can.

Code of Conduct

Registered and unregistered providers

Be responsive

They act quickly if they see things that are not right or safe.

Earn my trust

They should tell you the truth and follow the NDIS rules.

Keep me safe from abuse and neglect

They are not allowed to hurt you or make you feel bad. They protect you from harm from other people. They must not do anything sexual to you or in front of you.
